

IT'S ALL ABOUT THE TASTE

Owner Mitch Duncan said his success over the last 7 years has been all about the tasty dishes head chef Chris Timmins and his team has produced. A focus on using local produce is at the heart of the 165 year old iconic hotels menu.

A renewed focus on sourcing local wines, beers and spirits from the region further enhances the extensive range of artisan beverages on offer.

Soon to open in November are the "Lawn" and "Garden" spaces that now offer additional dining and beverage offerings that have never been seen before in Daylesford.

A Must Do, when in Daylesford.
